Hello,

The current file contains two code files.

The code file "Number.py" is used to calculate the number of pixel perturbations of adversarial samples generated by PGD.

The code file "the average maximum perturbation intensity.py" is used to calculate the average maximum perturbation intensity of adversarial samples generated by PGD.